THE COLONEL'S CORNER

BY BO GRITZ

HAPPY NEW YEAR – EACH ENDING BRINGS A NEW BEGINNING

LIFE can be likened to the flow of a volume of water along its course to the ocean. We begin the journey as a tiny droplet detached from a much larger whole and deposited rather abruptly on earth in our various stations. For some the return takes but a heart beat. The Great Master so loves them that they are carefully placed and never away from His hand. How many wee ones struggle within the limits of their new form only to be quickly reclaimed by our Heavenly Father? For most of us, however, the voyage can be long and challenging. With varying degrees of difficulty and acceptance, we set sail. Alone, we are easily blown off course, become lost, and run afoul in a cold and dreary world. It's safer to join with others who have been provided with a Map showing a sure way home. Our progress is marked by spurts, shallows, swirls, storms, rapids, falls, pools, dams, diversions, doldrums, pollutants and cleansings.

Many are lured onto rocks and into pit-falls to become trapped, stagnate and food for the bottom feeders. Some are so misguided, they abandon ship and are reassigned within the ranks of the scum suckers. Success is running the course to its end regardless of how much swamp water you might ingest. When adrift, we are advised to seek direction from a Pilot who comes as a gift to those who follow the Map. Restored to the current that flows homeward, we bring with us the bounty of our experiences, accomplishments, and contributions hoping to please the Author of life.

Do you suppose that the Great Adventure is over upon making port? Won't those of us who make muster be provided with an even better vessel to go forth for a thousand years under the presence of the Master? At the time of the final tally, won't we go on to venture into new waters in accordance with the grace and will of Almighty God? Don't give up the ship -- no matter how bad the tempest howls! Call out! Look for the Lighthouse. Dump the ballast that unbalances you. Fill your sails with His breath of life. Find and join the glorious armada. Our Father sends His Great Captain to lead us in!

OBSTACLES. What are some of the barriers and how can we avoid them? How many times have you met a middle-aged person who is caught in the snare of clinging to what once was, but now is past? Our first experience is usually removal from the warm comfort of the womb into a world of light, cold, and air. I remember the alarming realization of going from a toughest-kid-in-school sixth-grader, to a pee-wee in jr.-high. Having spent time in hell as a rat freshman at Fort Union Military Academy, in my senior year, I was the Corps Commander. How humiliating to start all over as I transitioned from cadet grey to army green? It's always hard to depart the familiar to begin a new adventure. There are many worldly distractions to entrap us, not the least of which includes: a fondness for food, alcohol and drug addiction, over indulgence of television, credit cards, gambling, keeping up with the Jones, the love of money, appetites of the flesh, overcoming phobias, avoidance of responsibilities, and other abuses. We only progress when we take steps to overcome obstacles blocking our way and press on.

SOLUTIONS. I AM GOING TO SHARE WITH YOU WHAT COST A FRIEND OF MINE $12,000 FROM A SPECIAL CONSULTANT. As we move into 1997, I suggest an alternative to the traditional long list of unkept "New Year Resolutions." Take a pencil and large blank spread sheet: Label the Top Left, "Things I Like Doing;" at Top Right, "Things I Hate Doing;" on the Bottom Left, "Things I Want to Do;" Bottom Right, "Things I must Do;" in the center write: "Priorities." List the following four sub-headings under each of the major categories: Intellectual, Physical, Emotional, Spiritual. Now, be brutally honest and address each of the corner headings and sub-themes. You may, for example, love: "Going out to eat, Play poker, Watching TV soaps, Visiting friends, and Buying new clothes." You may hate: "Working as a clerk, Exercising, Visiting in-laws, Cooking, and Housework." Maybe you would like to: "Change jobs, Supercharge your love-life, Be more Spiritual, Lose weight, and Go on a cruise." Probably you must: "Make a living Maintain peace at home, Pay bills, and Not go crazy.

Examining the corner lists, begin to prioritize your determinations in the center: "Trade poker and dining out for night school and a new job, Purchase individual tape sets on How to Light His and Her Fire, Get up 30-minutes early for Scripture study, Walk to the store, Talk to your significant other about sharing home chores, etc." I'll make you a promise. Take the time to conscientiously complete this drill in January. Note the calendar to check your "New Year Priorities" sometime in December. You will be amazed to find that almost all of your "Center" goals will have been accomplished! You are making straight the way of your progress!

To assure that you stay in control of your own life and maximize each precious moment, end each day by writing down the focus of the day to come. Make a list of the most important tasks and don't allow the needs of others to steal away the things that are keys to your own existence. Always leave some quiet time to pray. Address your prayers to Our Father in Heaven. Thank Him for your blessings. Ask Him for guidance in your needs. Close your petition in the name of the Messiah, His Holy Son, Jesus Christ. Speak to God often in your busy day as you would a trusted best friend. Praise Him as you travel, eat, prepare for sleep, finish your work. Always ask His blessing upon any important project. Tell Him that you love Him, need Him, depend upon Him, thank Him for your health, seek His guidance and Spirit. Ask Him to station His angels in protection around your loved ones. Pray for those who have not yet discovered their kinship to Him. Help those in need, confess before men that Jesus Christ is Lord. How many times are visiting angels sent away because we recognize them only as undesirables? Pray for the Holy Spirit to testify of the truth before those you love facing difficulties. We are all of His creation. He has made a Way for all of us to become His sons and daughters. The invitation is there, RSVP ASAP!

MARRIAGE. What about the beautiful mate God graces us with that we may not be alone in life's journey? Are we expected to keep the Sacred Promises made to God, angels, witnesses and each other -- even if we fall out of love, or feel attracted to another? How would you feel if God changed His mind about promises made to you? YES! We must stay the course! This includes our responsibility to treat our spouse as we want to be treated. There is no right in abuse of the person joined to another by the laws of both man and God. Our promise is to endure -- in righteousness. The person who severs the contract of Holy Wedlock in folly will not be held blameless. I guarantee you that if love brought you together, even if events douse your affection, time can relight that fire. Don't be alone in the long run -- the course, like a 3-legged race, is meant to be completed with your partner. Stick! You'll be glad you did.

CHILDREN. Now for those sweet violets we are gifted with who wilt, can become ugly, and even die by exposure to the corrosive elements of life. First, you must never give up! You are tasked as their stewards by Almighty God. It is your job to secure them when they are small, introduce them to the Gospel (Map) as they grow, advance them in the Sacraments so they know the Master and Pilot, and set their rudder homeward bound. Second, you must sometimes apply "tough love." Most parents don't like confrontation with their teenagers. We would much rather ignore and not be bothered with their difficulties. Today, most young people get involved with drugs. Oh, I know -- NOT MINE! You may look through rose colored glasses at a scorpion and speak kindly of it, but will this keep you from the sting? True love sometimes means tough love, the same as our Father gives us. Every darling child that is exposed to the world should have a comprehensive drug test even as you protect them from other deadly diseases. Like Abraham and Isaac, a true child won't mind showing loyalty by obeying your request. Only those who resist have something to hide. In this day and time, you are shirking your duty to God, self, and child by refusing to face the facts of life at this age.

As a preventative measure, I recommend you consider the following formula. Every child between six and 10 should be exposed to a dead body. Have them touch the cold wax-like face or hand. There is nothing like realism to drive home the point that now is the time for striving. In a heartbeat, life can end and with it your opportunity for exaltation. We should have no fear of death, just understanding. The Pentecostal churches of Oklahoma traditionally left the casket open so those living could file past the dearly departed. My wise Grandmother, on one of these many occasions, caused me to place my little hand upon those of the deceased. It was a touch I have never forgotten. Next, I learned a chilling lesson from my Dutch Grandfather as he led me behind prison bars to visit a friend. The clang of steel doors still rings in my ears. Finally, if in the mid-teens, a once bright shining soul remains tarnished, hire a trusted ferocious looking tough to snatch your errant child into a dark place and make them think they are about to breathe their last breath. While you may consider these methods extreme, they are merciful when compared to the potential harm to a wayward soul. Consider these as an alternative to terrorism as you seek to stave off the terrible teens. Good luck.

Isn't our Father's plan for us glorious in its progression. First, we are guided by others, then we use His gift of free agency to navigate ourselves. At a second level, we join as one with our mate and learn to live in consideration of another. Then comes a third progression where we are responsible for rearing children. Some people go on to lead others outside of family. God didn't say life, obstacles, solutions, marriage, and children would be easy -- just worth doing right! Happy New Year and a joyful new Beginning!

P.S. If all else fails try something warm with a cold nose. We welcome the newest members of our Idaho family, a kitten named Bubba (He's a real hunk) and a German Shepherd pup (yet to be named). Bubba is a highly bred mouser born at the farmhouse on Almost Heaven Too. The Black & Tan Shepherd will become my shadow. CJ letting me have a dog is a sure sign we are putting down roots. Unlike cats, dogs require time, even more than kids. I've always chosen white Shepherds before and they've all been named "Duke." One thing about big dogs, they don't like being left behind. At one time all Jim and I had in our Washington, D.C. apartment was a Llama hair rug donated by General Westmoreland. It became the center-piece of our home in Panama -- AND the depository of Duke's ire when I had to go where he couldn't.

I loved Duke. He was huge and made the Panamanians (and anyone else he decided was too close for comfort) think they were his lunch. Rather than belittle a good sergeant (lowest rank in Special Forces), I chose to drive myself. Duke would set upright in the right seat. He seems to relish the salutes from soldiers seeing the "SF COMMANDER" placard on the bumper. When I first took over, the Sergeant Major assigned a Sergeant Dorta as my driver. Duke worked out better. He stayed right where I placed him, didn't care about beer or bras, and nobody dared come near my stuff. When the "leg" General would visit, I would drive and Duke sat in the back -- with his head between us (salivating on the General's trouser leg).

Duke made sure the chores were done around the house. I could always tell by the layer of white hair on the stairs when the maid hadn't swept the floor. Duke knew exactly where he was supposed to be, but the General never caught on. At award ceremonies the General would follow me down the theater aisle with Duke dutifully in trail. As I bounded up the stairs to the stage, Duke would end up tripping the General as he tried to remain at "Heel." The General hated me (for other reasons), but provided the men comic relief when, upon my transfer, he announced: "It will be quite an improvement not looking up the tailend of that damned White Shepherd any more!" The reason we all got a good laugh is that I couldn't bring Duke back with me. He continued his exceptional service to succeeding Special Forces Commanders.

Would you please be quick in helping me with a suitable name for a quality pure bred dog that will certainly become my beloved companion? Please call in, or send suggestions to Vicci (208-935-1325). I'll show my appreciation by adding your own name to his registration papers. Be kind, no COL. Klink, Schultz, Fritz-grits, et al. The little guy was born November 30th. I can have him in about two more months. You are all invited to stop by and look in on the lil-tike -- before he grows up!

EVERGREAT WORDS

(with politically correct NEA approved "Ebonics" added)

Escape From L.A.! One-sixth of all the people in America live in the Los Angeles valley. Since Darwin and the Monkey Trials, schools have been teaching that your ancestors slithered out of the ocean as slime. Evolution has replaced Creation as the educated persons excuse for being here. Just as a tide is supposed to have deposited your mother-in-law on dry land, so now the tide of ignorance is reclaiming those of such a persuasion. It wasn't enough to "re-center" the SAT scores to make our young people appear smarter, now teachers in California claim their students are "bi-lingual" because they speak "Street Talk." In an effort to give average high schoolers a passing grade, the NEA is recommending teaching "Ebonics" as a communicative skill. No it isn't Greek, Latin, or even German. Ebonics is the latest new word created by educators to recognize and be sensitive of teenage street language. EBONICS IS NOW CONSIDERED AN "OFFICIAL" SECOND LANGUAGE by the Oakland School District. Having the experience of enduring four teenagers (and now a 17-year old Grandson), trained by the CIA as a linguist, and having lived in every quadrant of our planet, I have a crude working knowledge on what children are naturally fluent in today. Desiring to show I am not completely "anti-government," I am including a few words of "Ebonics" as part of this brief article. Now for some words that can't be taught in public school -- with ebonics added.

Did you know that in the year 750 B.C. the Prophet Micah gave the precise place where the Savior of the world would be born? COOL DUDE! Micah 5:2 says the coming of Christ has been foretold from of old and everlasting. Joseph and Mary live 120 miles north in Nazareth! TRIPPY! It was unthinkable that they would travel to Bethlehem in Mary's trimester! God used Caesar Augustus to accomplish this miracle. TOTALLY, HOLMS!

Even further back, in the Book of Genesis (49:10), we find impossibles fulfilled. Israel's priests were chosen from the tribe of Levi. In verse 10 the word "Shiloh" means Messiah. RAD! Both Joseph and Mary were of Judah. How about a virgin birth? Read Isaiah 7:14. RIGHT ON! Zechariah foretold that the world's greatest king would make His entry into Jerusalem on a donkey. MASS COOL! How many potentates have done that? The same Prophet even gave us the bounty hunter's price, 30 pieces of silver (GROVEL & FROTH!) 550 years before it was measured out (Zech: 11:12)! Isaiah said

"with His stripes we are healed" (Isa 53:5). FAR OUT! Jesus was whipped 39 times with leather straps containing nails, broken grass and other cutting objects, before crucifixion, as foretold in Psalms 22:16. BUMMER! Read Psalms 34:20 to see why not one of Jesus' bones was broken. WHOA! Reconcile that prophesy with the custom of breaking both legs to cause death through pain, shock, and collapse of the lungs. CORKED BIG TIME, MAN! For the skeptic there is another Psalm (16:10) which says that despite guards, tombs, boulders and disbelief, Jesus is resurrected after three days and remains on earth for 40 days appearing constantly to groups of people numbering up to 500. HEAVY HOLMS! That is a lot of witness!

"Thus saith the Lord God; Behold I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all" (Ezekiel 37:21-22). RIGHT ON! The nation of Israel was restored through the UN in 1948 out of the British Empire. The US was formed under "Only King Jesus" out of the British Empire in 1789. WE BE JAMM'N! If you believe the Evergreat Words above, you must accept the fact that the Messiah was born upon the earth within God's Covenant people, was baptized, taught, performed miracles, and was received by "His" people as their King. The "King of Israel" was then betrayed, tried, and crucified by those He adjudged as being of their father, the Devil, He was resurrected, established His church on earth and gave the keys to His apostles before ascending to Heaven. Peter expanded the Great Commission of spreading the "Good News" to all nations, kindred and tongues. MAD COOL!

Do you suppose that God established a new nation and land for those who rejected, renounced, and killed the Messiah? NO WAY, MAN! Is it possible that God desires His children to hearken to the words of man, and ignore His prophets? FAT FLAGELLATE'N CHANCE DUDE! Will God send His Son again to claim those who blaspheme and teach hatred of the One who fulfilled every ancient prophesy? NOT! Are we to follow those who were cast out of our Father's House by the Messiah as money-changers and power-mad lawyers who worshipped the world more than God? SPEW CHUNKS DUDE! Perhaps I've completely overlooked some major Scripture that says: The One True God only loves those who take upon them the name and ways of those who lie about His Son sent to them as their Savior. The Bible is a record of God's people and the consequences for their loyalty and disobedience. As a people who love God we are taught by the Messiah to hate only the tragedy and sin that blinds our brothers and sisters from the Great Truth -- Jesus is the Christ. HI-FIVES!

Yes, the nation of Israel is re-formed, and yes the Rabbinical Religion continues that rejects Jesus Christ, and there is a racial line called Jews that basically occupy three geographical areas: America (5-million), Israel (4-million) and the world (9-million). Prophesy concerning Jerusalem, the Temple, and Armageddon must be realized. OBLIViate! Neither God, nor His Prophets lie! RIGHT ON! As a Christian,

I have cast my lot with billions of other human beings who accept Jesus as the Messiah. If we are right, then it won't be long before He comes, bringing with Him all those resurrected who have taken on His name since the foundation of the world. Those on earth who are alive and have endured in their faith will be transformed to help administer the earth throughout the millennium of peace. Can billions of living people, and the billions that have gone on, be wrong about Jesus Christ? COME ON, MAN! Is it possible for the Islamics to accept Him as coming from a virgin birth, a great prophet from God, who will come in the end to claim all of God's creation? Are the Buddhist also wrong in recognizing Jesus as Buddha? The Hindu see Jesus as an enlightened one. Can it be that only a relative few haven't yet gotten the word? I DON'T THINK SO!

Daniel relates in Chapter 12:4 how at "the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." It took from creation to 1900 for man to go from the horse to the automobile. Today we are on the Internet and inouterspace. NOW THAT'S TOTALLY BAD! It is estimated today that the world's knowledge now redoubles every two years! GIVE ME PROPS! Daniel's vision of a world government is achieved under the UN. Read Revelation 13:8. In June 1996, a planning meeting was held in San Francisco preparing for the formation conference of a sister organization to the UN called the "United Religions." PHAT! Today any nation not conforming to the thinking of the UN is termed a "rogue" nation. Tomorrow any church not accepting the UN god will be considered rogue. UN-COOL! We are all well aware of the World Trade Organization, Universal Product Codes, Electronic Currency, Smart Cards. Can you live without them? Are you? SLAM DUNKED! How difficult would it be if you couldn't purchase anything marked with a bar code? Could you hold a job without a Social Security Number, or have a bank account? DANIEL SAID OF THE CHRISTIANS IN THE ENDTIME "THEY THAT UNDERSTAND AMONG THE PEOPLE SHALL INSTRUCT MANY" (Dan 12:9). Are you doing your part? GET RAPP'N!

THEIR FATHER, THE DEVIL

The New York Times reported a story how NYC attorney Joel Steinberg and Dr. Michael Bergman of the Beckman Hospital became millionaires by selling more than 500 newborns for up to $50,000 each. Bergman made it a point to offer "placement of the babe in a good home" to unwed moms for a mere $500. Steinberg kept the daughter of Michelle Laundres for six years before crushing her skull. "Lisa" was known by her teachers as the "saddest girl in the world and the little girl who never smiled." She often came to her first grade class with bruises on her arms, chest, legs and neck. Lisa said her brother beat her. Lisa's brother was only a few months old, another child "kept" for personal pleasure by the firm Steinberg & Bergman.

Hedda Nussbaum, Steinberg's live-in, called 911 ten hours after Lisa had been smashed to the floor while the two adults doped out on heroin and cocaine. Nussbaum said that Steinberg would loan Lisa out at age two to other professionals, like Dr. Michael Green who raped her. Lisa was never legally adopted and not allowed burial in a Jewish cemetery. The natural mom had been told that Lisa was with a Manhattan Catholic family. Steinberg was sentenced to 25 years in prison. Nussbaum was excused for her cooperation.

As you will recall, we begged every TV news-talk program to air the Jon and Ben Wiegand cry for help. At first I was in shock that not a single network, not even one prominent show would touch the story. Every producer had the same excuse: "It's not upbeat enough." NOW FOR THE TRUTH! Oprah Winfrey is the highest paid entertainment personality in the world, yet she must pay an exacting price for her celebrity compensation. The New York Times recorded hundreds of protests after Oprah interviewed a Jewish female who said she was part of a large formation of families that engaged in ritual abuse and killing of children. The woman suffered from "multiple personality disorder" and had been under long-term psychiatric care. The woman testified on the air that she had witnessed the ritual sacrifice of Jewish children and had been the victim of ritualistic abuse. A spokeswoman for the program, Christine Tardio, said, the producers were satisfied that the guest's claim that she had been a victim of abuse was true. The woman said she had been forced to participate in the "sacrifice of an infant."

The Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'rith called the program "potentially devastating." According to the A.C. Nielson Company, the show is watched in 7,680,000 homes across the nation. You may order a transcript of the show by sending $3.00 to: JOURNAL GRAPHICS, INC., 267 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10007. Ask for "TRANSCRIPT #686, OPRAH WINFREY, MAY 1, 1989. I suggest you call 212-227-7323 to insure they have sufficient copies.

Several years ago Claudia received a very long handwritten letter from a Salt Lake woman who claimed to be a member of a cult family. Her description of what had happened to her was so graphic and ghastly that I refused to believe it. Claudia persisted. My guidance was that she turn the letter over to the Las Vegas FBI. It wasn't long until the Salt Lake City news carried a front page story released by the Presiding Bishop of the LDS Church. It concerned a rash of Satanic-type ritualistic abuses among church members.

Last month I received a personal letter and news copy from a Richard in San Diego with personal knowledge of what I had thought was too terrible to be true. "Hi Bo, I had a roommate beheaded in Sedona, Arizona this last Halloween. When she was determined to be missing, eight others and myself went to Sedona to find her. A town meeting was stopped by city authorities. Her remains were eventually found in two stages. Homicide detective Garry Saravo refused to release details -- even to the murdered woman's children. The fact is that three other women also died by having their hearts cut out, and an infant was skinned alive. Parts of yet another woman were found this Halloween near The Chapel in the Rocks."

The Sedona Red Rock News cites a 35-year old female resident who survived growing up in an "abusive-cult family."

"Cathy grew up in an elegant home in the nicest neighborhood. Her father was a wealthy attorney, office holder in a number of professional and service organizations, and a board member of a traditional church. Behind that facade, Cathy suffered horrendous sexual abuse cloaked under the guise of RELIGIOUS teaching.

"My father was head of the cult. They held their monthly services on a ranch owned by the local bank president. Multiple rapes of children, murder of babies, tortures and cannibalism were part of the ceremonies I was forced into. Sex, blood, dismemberment, child or animal sacrifice are often part of many cult rituals. Ritual abuse is about power. Key members are power mad and believe that by taking power away from others, PARTICULARLY INNOCENT CHILDREN, they increase their own power in the world. (DO YOU UNDERSTAND WHY I HAVE PUT SO MUCH AT RISK FOR BEN AND JON??? WON'T YOU JOIN JIM AND ME??? WE CAN'T DEFEAT THE POWERS OF EVIL ALONE. WE NEED YOU -- AND YOUR EMPOWERMENT AS SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF ALMIGHTY GOD!)

"There are all types of cults: Satanic, religious, ethnic, cultural, white witchcraft, etc. (ARE YOU BEGINNING TO UNDERSTAND MY CRITICISM OF CERTAIN CHURCH AUTHORITIES WHO DENY THE BLESSINGS OF SACRAMENTS AND ORDINANCES OF THE GOSPEL TO SO MANY? ISN'T THE MOTIVATION FOR THEIR ACTION IN LINE WITH THE ABUSES DESCRIBED?).

"Cathy said, I've been in therapy for six years, and I've worked through a lot of what was done to me. The hardest thing to overcome is the programming that I WOULD DIE IF I TOLD. (Sounds like Jon and Ben). Intellectually, I know it is not true, but emotionally I'm still afraid sometimes. I'm glad my mother is dead. Death was her only way out. But my father is still a problem for me. I CAN'T STAND THAT HE IS A JUDGE NOW. People look up to him, and he is secretly killing babies and raping children. I tried, but I can't stop him. (CAN YOU SEE HOW AN ATTORNEY, CLIENT, JUDGE, POLICE CHIEF, PROSECUTOR, AG, ETC. CAN LITERALLY TAKE OVER A "FAMILY COURT" IN CONNECTICUT? PLEASE HELP US BREAK THIS CABAL!)

"Cathy reported the incidents of her abuse to federal authorities, who turned the information over to local authorities. Cathy survived, most children don't (JON AND BEN?). IT KEEPS ON HAPPENING BECAUSE NOBODY WANTS TO BELIEVE THAT SO-CALLED "NICE PEOPLE" DO TERRIBLE THINGS!" I can assure you that I hold documented evidence of much worse than selected in this article. Please safeguard your little ones. Please join me as we declare war against those who serve THEIR FATHER THE DEVIL. Do all you will. Send all you can to me at (Bo Gritz, Box 308, Kamiah, Idaho 83536). I PROMISE BEFORE GOD AND ANGELS THAT EVERY CENT OF YOUR CONTRIBUTION WILL BE DIRECTLY USED TO FIGHT FOR TRUTH AND JUSTICE IN FREEING JON, BEN, AND LINDA WIEGAND!

IMAGE OF THE BEAST

The seventh U.N. Secretary General, selected by the Security Council and approved of by the 185 nation General Assembly was given reign over the world on New Year's Day. African members were miffed when Boutros-Ghali's traditional second four-year term was blocked by the U.S. The Council wrestled over other African nominees with the five permanent members (US, UK, France, China and Russia) exercising their veto power more than once. Finally, on Friday the 13th, the 15 members settled on Kofi Ahanan, the representative from Ghana, currently serving as the Assistant Secretary General for Peacekeeping Operations. Ghana is one of the newly UN created nations along the West African Coast next to Cote D'Ivoire (Ivory Coast). Ghana used to be part of the Gold Coast under British rule. The UN approved a merger with the British Togo Trust Territory in 1956, and finally made Ghana a separate nation-state in 1960. Ghana had communist leanings from the beginning (like 800-million other people who fell under the UN dominated Hammer & Sickle). Constant coups have devastated the body politic.

Ahanan's first announcement was: "I will try to persuade the United States to pay its $1.4-billion back dues." Even though America picks up most of the UN tab, provides the headquarters, and furnishes more "peacekeepers" and materials than any other single nation, the USA has never been elected to head either the Security Council, or the United Nations Organization. Trying to find a democratic African representative from a sub-Sahara stable government outside of South Africa and Kenya is virtually impossible. Much of the population is ravaged by AIDS, famine, war, corruption and greed. Nigeria is rife with government sponsored scams targeting Americans. Look at the slaughter in Rwanda and Burundi. Chad and the Sudan are among the poorest nations on earth. Most of North Africa is Communist or Islamic extremist (Libya, Tunisia, Yemen, Morocco). The nations clustered around South Africa, e.g., Angola, have been under Communist influence for so long, there is little hope of change. Mainly the people in government in almost all African states are devoid of scruples.

Black Islamic cliques steal from both the governments and commercial enterprises. One such group based out of Nigeria while bribing Saudi officials for a chemical wash of "black stained" free-world money furnished Communist third-world countries such as Benin. The same bandits were wired with bankers of 15 central African nations (including Ghana). The ring would steal boxes of Barclays' Travelers Checks. Operatives would use fake passport ID to exchange the checks for cash. The U.S., French, and British banks were the only losers. One contact of ours out of Benin worked at the Canadian Mint. His contribution was to set currency runs with double serial numbers using extra paper pilfered from ready stocks. Is this the kind of official we want running the world? Recall that huge cash amounts were stashed in desk drawers of agencies within the UN. When audit time came, they went to the cupboard, but found it bare! The new Secretary General represents a terrible example of how government should be run, but is certainly consistent with having a socialist at the helm.

You should know that the United Nations is a spin off of the Council on Foreign Relations effort at world government through Woodrow Wilson's post-World War I, League of Nations. The U.S. Senate sank the New World Order battleship when it said that the United States would not surrender its sovereignty to any foreign power. Without America, the League shriveled up. The CFR got its early lead from its older ugly New World Order sister in Great Britain. Every member of the UN planning commission (Post-War Foreign Policy Committee) was a CFR member, including FDR's Secretary of State, Cordell Hull. The groundwork for the CFR began two-weeks after the Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor. The Yalta Conference with Stalin, FDR, and Churchill sent American Communist Alger Hiss to San Francisco to formalize the UN Organization. Traitor Hiss was not alone. The following State Department and Treasury Department co-members were also determined to be Communists: Harry Dexter White, Virginus Frank Coe, Noel Fied, Laurence Duggan, Henry Wadleigh, John Vincent, David Weintraub, Nathan Silvermaster, Harold Glasser, Victor Perlo, Irving Kaplan, Abraham Silverman, Solomon Adler, William Ullman, and William Taylor.

Hiss and Leo Pasvolksy wrote the Charter patterned after the Soviet Constitution. Pasvolksy explained the Charter to the U.S. Senate before it was excepted. Only two Senators voted against the UN, William Langer of North Dakota and Henrik Shipstead from Minnesota. They were the only two Senators who actually read the document. America has always been behind the power curve with respect to the UN. As mentioned in previous newsletters, all Secretary Generals have been socialists, and all Under Secretaries for Political & Security Council Affairs have been Communists (all but one were Russians). While we pay 30% of the UN overall operating costs, the U.S. gets only one vote, the same as Fiji, Jamaica, and Luxembourg (half the size of Rhode Island). Didn't the Communists control forces on both sides during the Korean War? Remember when General MacArthur wanted to cross the Yalu River and was fired? A Russian military officer, General Leonid Kutakov directed both the American and Communist Vietnamese involvement. Recall that any move to bomb Hanoi's Haiphong Harbor, with all its Rockefeller oil and Soviet munitions tankers, was quickly rejected. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. and his two sons, Nelson and David gifted the U.N. $8,500,000 to buy the New York City East River property.

You must understand that a "treaty" is equal to the Constitution in force of law. Ohio Senator John Bricker introduced an Amendment in 1950 stating that the Constitution would prevail over any conflicting treaty provision. His proposal lost by one vote. The goal of the UN is world domination by a single government entity. The means is disarmament. One of the first measures taken by JFK was the 1961 State Department Document 7277 (The United States Program for General and Complete Disarmament). This three phase plan was later passed into law by Congress on September 26, 1961 (Public Law 87-297) and calls ultimately for "no state to have the military power to challenge the progressively strengthened U.N. Peace Force." Only UN "peace keeping" forces would be armed. All other guns would be collected and destroyed (Section 3(a), P.L. 87-297. Chapter XIV of the Charter, including Articles 102-105, gives the U.N. license to "physically come onto or occupy the land territory of a member state, for fulfillment of its purposes."

The Trilateral Commission was a 1973 Rockefeller accelerator to the CFR to speed up consolidation of the world's economy under a single organization (WTO). The NYC based CFR has approximately 4,000 American "invitation only" members. The TC is also located in NYC, but limits its members to 325 U.S., European, and Asian invited members. Jimmy Carter was its first stooge. Henry Luce, owner of TIME, was both a CFR, TC, and member of the Skull & Bones, elevated Carter from obscurity (Jimmy beat the panel on the TV show, What's My Line. No one guessed he was Governor of Georgia) to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Carter offered a pre-1976-election book, I'll Never Lie to You, to convince voters that he wasn't an "insider." His youthful confidant, Jody Powell, stated that he would resign if Carter appointed CFR/TC big guns, Cyrus Vance and Zbigniew Brezinski as Secretary of State and NSC Advisor. Carter did, but Jody didn't. Ronald Reagan criticized Carter for the large number of globalists appointed to top level White House positions. Reagan won, but with George Bush as his VP, he exceeded Carter in the number of CFR/TC appointees.

Both the CFR and Trilateral Commission have accomplished their stated goals. We now have a solid world government and a world trade organization. The WTO has 123 members. America has a single vote with no veto. The global insignia of the U.N. exalts the earth over God as a perfect sign, or image of the beast. All we are lacking is a world religion, Antichrist and his mark. Bill Clinton was chiding the Senate in December about not approving the UN Conference on Rights of the Child. America is the last hold out. If you will check my predictions, Hillary committed the U.S. to approval at the 1995 Women's Rights Conference. Her vegetable, Bill, is only carrying out another "honey-do." You may contact the CFR by calling 212-734-0400, or writing to Pratt House, 58 East 68th Street, NY, NY 10021. The TC is available at 212-661-1180 or 345 East 46th Street, NY, NY 10017. Their fax is 212-861-1789. Cy Minett will soon have out a new chart pinning tails on all the new donkeys in Clinton's closet. Without waiting, I can assure you it is more of the same: a real All American assortment. Albright -- State, Rubin -- Treasury, Cohen -- Defense, Reno -- AG, Babbitt -- Interior, Glickman -- Agriculture, Daley -- Commerce, Herman -- Labor, Cuomo -- HUD, Slater -- Trans, Pena -- Energy, Shalala -- H&HS, Riley -- Education, Brown -- Veterans. Of the key cabinet, 10 are whites, three blacks, one Hispanic, and four women (3 white).

ANTICHRIST CURRICULUM VITAE

Scriptures provide 50 requisites of the Devil's Son of Perdition. Herein are several keys to unlocking the identity of the Antichrist. The Antichrist is a man, a ruler (a little horn) who arises to up-root and subdue three of 10 other rulers (Daniel 7:24-25). There are currently seven industrialized nations. The Antichrist will wear out the Saints of the Most High for 42 months until Christ returns (Dan 7:21-22). Revelation 17:12-13 (700 years later) records that these world leaders give their power unto the beast. The Antichrist will confirm a covenant with many for seven years. The Jerusalem Covenant of May 19, 1993 may be that prophesied by Daniel 9:27. The Arab-Israeli Peace Accord was confirmed September 13, 1993. Was the Antichrist there?

Daniel saw all the world empires from his time (600 B.C.) until the Day of the Lord -- opening of the seventh seal. Babylon was the head of gold lasting from 604-539 B.C. King Cyrus's Media-Persia realm extended 200 years until 331 B.C. representing the arms and breast of silver. Next came the Greeks who ruled as the belly and thighs of brass until 197 B.C. From there the Romans took over until 284 A.D. As Rome fell, Europe's tribes divided and there hasn't been an absolute global kingdom since. The Vatican, Napoleon, Hitler, Stalin, Mao, all have failed to consolidate their earthly power. The last world order will be feet of iron mingled with clay. The current empowerment of the U.N. represents a womb from which this last brutal mesognathion will transmute. The fourth (legs of iron) will be carried over into the final evil empire, a bitter combination of clay and iron in the form of church and state with the 10 toes representative of the 10 region confederation of the Antichrist.

Daniel's vision (Dan 7:1-8) depicted four great beasts: a lion, a bear, a leopard, and a 10-horned creature unlike any Daniel had ever seen. These beasts symbolized nations existing with the Antichrist. England has long been represented by the Lion, Russia with a Bear, and Germany as a Leopard. John (Rev 13:1-2) sees a union of the four beasts with the body of a leopard, feet of a bear, mouth of a lion, and a head with 10 horns forming a great world government. He ascends on a platform of peace, but Daniel 8:25 states: "by peace shall (this beast) destroy many." Has the ring of UN "peacekeepers" doesn't it? John says in Rev 13:13-14 that the Antichrist will have the power, in sight of men and the beast, to rain fire down upon the earth and do other great wonders. Did men watch fire rain from the skies over Iraq coming from the UN coalition forces? Matthew 24:24 warns us that these signs will be so great that, if possible, the very elect will be deceived. The Antichrist will be a man who was a great leader, then lost power and regains it (Rev 17:8). Could it be that the Day of the Lord will come as soon as New Year 2001? Will the Great Tribulation begin in April of this year? If so, are you as prepared as you could be?

May I remind you that the Bible was not originally prepared for all the world. The Messiah and His people have a Covenant with God (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob (Israel). Who birthed the Christ? Doesn't prophesy tell us He must come from the House of David? Doesn't both Joseph and the virgin Mary's genealogy trace back to David? Who were Christ's Apostles? Remember what Christ said when approached by the woman at the well? It wasn't until after Jesus Christ was crucified that Peter gives the commission to go out and spread the Gospel to all the world. God has made it possible for all people to return to Him, but Rev 17:8 makes it clear that some have had their names recorded in the Lamb's Book of Life since the foundation of the world. What about those that Christ said were of their father, the Devil? Were all the Pharisees bad? What about Nicodemus, and who provided his own tomb for Jesus? Weren't they from the same Covenant tribes? Apparently God knows each of us, even as He knew Jeremiah. Some have His laws upon their hearts, others don't. See if you can interpret Rev 17:10-11 "And there are seven kings; five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition." The Antichrist had power from the same source as the other six, lost it, but will regain it and become the 8th ruler in the succession. Daniel 8:23 adds a "fierce countenance" and stout look (Dan 7:20) to help us recognize the Antichrist.

THE ANTICHRIST IS OF (II Thes 2:9), BUT IS NOT SATAN. I overhear many people relating to the Antichrist as being Satan. That is not accurate. Certainly the Antichrist is much more than just one of the many "antichrists," but the ONE Antichrist and his Communistic (Rev 17:3) New World Order is defeated in the Battle of Armageddon by the Prince of princes (Dan 8:25 & Rev 17:14) and cast alive into the lake of fire (Rev 19:20). This brilliant instrument of Satan will understand "dark sentences" (Dan 7:8), honor the god of forces (Dan 11:31), cause craft to prosper (Dan 8:25), think to change times and laws (Dan 7:25), speak against God (Dan 11:36), reject the God of his fathers (Dan 11:37) and the desire of women, claim to be God (II Thessalonians 2:4), and persecute God's Covenant people (Dan 7:21). Consider the main focus of GLOBAL 2000, the CFR's guidebook for their new world order, is POPULATION CONTROL. Look at Red China's forced abortion policy -- are not children the desire of women? Finally ponder this prophesy in Daniel 11:45, "HE SHALL PLANT THE TABERNACLES OF HIS PALACE BETWEEN THE SEAS IN THE GLORIOUS HOLY MOUNTAIN.

While the Antichrist will have control over a world government with a consolidated economic system and require everyone in the world to take a mark, his name, or number (666), and worship the image of the beast, not everyone goes along.

Daniel 11 tells of four wars during the Great Tribulation and verse 44 says: "But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many." Sounds like Satan's only way to rule is through death and destruction. God's way through His Son is a world at peace for 1,000 years. You and I can be apart of that great millennium. PLEASE READ ON TO KNOW EXACTLY HOW.

MURDER & RAPE, BUT NOT LOVE

Arrival of the Great Tribulation is preceded by the failure of righteous law. Children are most affected by the lack of moral justice. Consider the east, and west coast custody decisions denying children love and placing them instead in harm's way. Simpson and Wilkinson probably never met each other, but in both cases children were taken from safe, caring homes and delivered incredulously into the hands of demented males. As Clinton pledges America to the UN treaty on children, courts are removing little ones from non-politically correct parents. More and more traditional families are falling prey to judges that empower evil over good in child custody cases. Every Mom and Dad should read and ponder this article -- before it happens to them!

Linda Wiegand was a frightened, desperate, helpless woman when I met her in September. Vermont authorities said her husband, Tom Wilkinson was guilty of sexually abusing her two sons, Jon (7) and Ben (4). The family pediatrician's examination was conclusive. Jon and Ben were extensively interviewed, evaluated and tested by a staff of experts at the Harvard Medical Center in Massachusetts. They agreed that Tom Wilkinson and his sister Karen had both abused the boys. Wilkinson slipped the net, went to Connecticut and secured the services of a "rabid" family court attorney, Lewis Kiefer. Kiefer manipulated an immediate custody order in favor of Wilkinson from his local court official, Herbert Barall. Linda fled rather than place her sons at risk. For three years they lived happily under assumed names in the West. During this time Kiefer got Judge Barall to enter a judgment against Linda for more than $600,000 to be paid to Wilkinson and $50,000 for attorney fees compounded at 8% annually. The judge also turned over Linda's home, personal property and bank accounts to Wilkinson. He even went so far as to garnish her disability checks. Linda's best friend gave her up to the FBI for a $100,000 promissory reward from Wilkinson. On the eve of American Independence Day, the FBI smashed into Linda's Las Vegas apartment, ripped the boys from her arms and presented them to Wilkinson.

Linda gave Nebraska patriot attorney John DeCamp everything of value she had: 30 ounces in U.S. gold coin, her jewelry, and $25,000 in cash to get Barall's custody ruling overturned using the police and medical reports from Vermont and Massachusetts. Nothing happened. After her arrest on July 3, 1996, for Custodial Interference, Linda spent most of the month in jails as she was derailed across the nation to Connecticut. Out of her mind trying to fine anyone to help secure her children, she went to New York where Wilkinsons had moved Jon and Ben. She obtained an emergency custody order, but the Wilkinsons slipped back into their judicial safe zone in Suffield, Connecticut before NY State Police could rescue Jon and Ben. Here the Suffield Police ejected Linda and a Hartford Interval House social worker, refusing to honor the court order.

Having listened to her and examined official reports verifying her story, I agreed to help. I didn't really believe that everyone in the court system was corrupt, it just seemed to incredible to be true. I was wrong! DeCamp told me that he had spent $20,000 trying to get a Family Court attorney to represent Linda and her boys. Intimidation by the court was so intense that no one would take the case after four lawyers and two foundations ended up ordered out, and their files seized. You may say this is illegal and most un-Constitutional. Correct, but the Connecticut Family Courts have their own distinctive jurisdiction, outside the authority of higher and appellate courts. With no Family Court attorney willing to challenge Kiefer and his judge within this closed system, it is impossible to make straight the crooked judgments.

After my son, Jim and I were arrested on 30 September '96, I hired New York attorney Anthony Colliluri. Tony represented himself as a "mad-dog" lawyer, who would have a federal injunction securing the children and stopping persecution of Linda within a week. He said his firm was accepted by the bar in Connecticut. Craig Smith believed Tony was our man of the hour. His first action should have been a motion to set aside Barall's absurd judgment. Second, a motion to gain the release of Jon should have been filed. Jon has no genetic or legal attachment to Tom Wilkinson. Third, a federal suit was to be brought to safeguard Ben since the boys had been abused in more than one state. A fourth effort would force the arrest of Wilkinson as a child molester using the files and testimony of Jon and Ben, plus the professionals who had examined them. None of this was done! Tony later claimed that they are "criminal lawyers with no experience in Connecticut's family courts."

Tony contracted with Hartford attorney Paul Spinella to do the research on our kidnapping charges. Another Connecticut attorney, John Schoenhorn, was hired to prepare the way for Linda. I went to the mats seeking your help to secure contributions to grease the legal machinery. All the lawyers needed dollars. $10,000 went to Tony, $5,000 to Paul, $5,000 more to John, but no motions were made. Linda was impatient, I talked to Lamond Mills, the Las Vegas attorney who defended me against the federal onslaught in 1987. Lamond agreed to listen to Linda and see if he could help. Linda flew to Vegas. Lamond was paid $5,000 to file and present a motion in Federal Court that would send U.S. Marshals to secure the boys and return them to Nevada.

During this time, Linda was scheduled in a Hartford, Connecticut Family Court on 26 November. Kiefer had gone to Barall's replacement, Judge George Levine, and asked that Linda be put in prison for non-payment of the $600,000. Tony said he would ask for a continuance since Linda was in Las Vegas with Lamond. As reported in the December Newsletter, Tony got Wilkinson to admit under oath that Jon had steadfastly accused him of sexual assault during an official deposition arranged by Kiefer to be video taped. Wilkinson also confessed that Jon was not his son, as he had previously claimed. The judge was only interested in why Linda hadn't paid the money -- the judgment had never been attacked, meaning that Linda and her attorney accepted it as proper. A second hearing was set for 2 December. Linda didn't want to appear. She said the judge would jail her and the federal effort would be stalled. Everyone, including me, assured Linda that there was no way she could be imprisoned on a civil action. O.J. Simpson had killed two people and was free to attend, or not, the civil suit against him. Linda wanted me to talk with a Louisiana expert, Richard DuCoty, on child custody (you've got to kiss a lot of frogs to find a prince). Linda went back to Connecticut for the appearance and was promptly put into the Women's Prison!

The hearing was set for 10:00 A.M. in Hartford Superior Court. Tony and a colleague parked his GMC "Jimmy" at 9:00 directly in front of the courthouse. While his associate went to find change for the meter, a white male broke into the vehicle and took his briefcases and all court notes on Linda Wiegand. Judge George Levine disallowed Tony's request for a continuance with the sardonic comment: "It's not my fault someone stole your briefcase!" Kiefer, chortled and chuckled with an ecstatic Wilkinson over Tony's distress. At the insistence of Kiefer, the judge then ordered Linda incarcerated until the hearing could be continued. It seems that while the rest of America has expunged debtors prison, Connecticut retained an archaic writ allowing an accused to be jailed until a civil suit is concluded. Normally the plaintiffs must put up a bond in case an innocent defendant is injured by the action, but not in Connecticut. Kiefer demanded Levine specify a "cash only" bond of $ 30,000 if Linda was to avoid prison. Linda's fears had been realized. She needed to be free to testify in Federal Court, but none of us could pay the ransom. Craig Smith went in search of money, as did Richard Flowers. Lamond promised to be ready when Linda was free to travel. I called New Orleans. For $700, DuCoty would fly to Hartford, meet with the lawyers, observe the Hartford persecution on 11 December and decide a course of action. I sent him the money.

Linda, Jim and I were all supposed to be at Enfield on the 10 December for a "pre-trial" conference and motions on the criminal counts of Custodial Interference and Attempted Kidnapping. I was notified that the prosecutor was not available and the date was set back until 9 January. Tony and Schoenhorn needed more money. Somehow the "court" had "lost" all of their motions. While Schoenhorn was in the Enfield criminal judge's chambers, he learned that Tony would not be allowed to represent Linda. "The police are about to make more arrests with respect to the Wiegand case. A man and woman have come forward, under an offer of immunity, saying they were hired by Bo Gritz to try and enter Ben Wiegand's elementary school and kidnap him." The day Jim and I were arrested, there was a red pick-up truck seen at the school containing a man, woman, and child. Jim and I saw the same red pick-up truck earlier parked in Wilkinson's driveway! It is a blatant and blackhearted effort, lacking any real evidence, to set us up. Is there any question who engineered the theft of Tony's briefs and arranged for the penitent couple? Additionally, the plan now includes the arrest of Dave (Linda's friend), who has stuck by her throughout this lengthening epoch. Dave is to be accused of being the one to have sexually assaulted Ben and Jon. The prosecutors are scheming to further arrest Linda for "her part in the attempted kidnapping."

Linda and Tony faced Kiefer and Judge Levine on 11 December. Even before the plaintiffs had finished their cross-examination of Linda, Judge Levine interrupted with the dictate: "I've reached my decision!" Levine then declared Linda guilty of "Willful Contempt," meaning she knew she was obligated, had the means to pay, but maliciously refused. Levine further twisted the knife by declaring that if the $30,000 was paid, it would go to Kiefer and Wilkinson! Linda left Hartford that afternoon on a bus to York, Connecticut's maximum confinement prison, where she is locked in solitary with only one hour per day outside her cell. A guard told Dave that "she had already been assaulted once and higher powers wanted her to disappear!" John Salvi killed two women while protesting abortion at a clinic in Massachusetts. He was found last month hanged in his cell with his mouth gagged, a plastic bag tied around his neck, and both hands and feet bound securely. Prison officials declared his death a suicide! Dave was advised to get Linda out ASAP. I contacted everyone. Linda's mother had seemed ready to help. She called me several times anxious about her daughter's and the boy's safety. I was told she would take out a note on her home. As I was preparing to call, she left a message declining any support. Craig Smith also struck out.

Despite all the gloom and doom, there is still some good news! Last month I gave you quotes from the Attorney General of Vermont's response to a federal suit by Kiefer to stop Vermont from sharing recent testimony by Jon Wiegand that Wilkinson had raped him. Vermont has sent the information to Connecticut! Why then does Wilkinson still have custody of the boys? A state social worker knew the answer: "Connecticut will not charge Wilkinson, nor consider securing the boys. To do so invites an enormous law suit by Linda Wiegand. She has done everything humanly possible to get Connecticut to focus on Wilkinson and protect her children."

It was announced in the Hartford news that Connecticut Attorney General Richard Blumenthal is being tapped for the Janet Reno's Number-2 at DOJ. Since 1958, Connecticut justice has been under the plague of screaming liberals. No doubt Blumenthal is a perfect candidate for Clinton's last four years. Even though Blumenthal's mandate as AG is to personally handle "child protective" cases, he has ignored the criminal treatment of Ben, Jon, and Linda. While every other state would have long arrested Wilkinson and moved the boys into protective custody, Connecticut continues to pander to pedophiles. It was announced on CNN that the "Gay Men of Connecticut" would be conducting a "Nutcracker Suite" over Christmas. The setting was Martha Stewart's Westport apartment with Martha being portrayed as a "dominatrix." The dance was performed by 50 homosexual men wearing tutus.

Joseph I. Lieberman was the Connecticut AG before Blumenthal. Lieberman resigned to temporarily fill a U.S. Senate seat and was elected November 1990 and again this past November. Senator Lieberman's number is (860) 549-8463. When you call his staff will say that he is aware of the Wiegand case. Remind them that Vermont has just furnished recent evidence to Blumenthal of Wilkinson's sexual abuse of the boys. Let Lieberman know that unless he takes positive action to see the boys are secure, you will notify the press of your constant requests once Linda is proven innocent or Wilkinson is indicted. Lieberman's address is "Number One State Street, Suite 1420, Hartford, Conn. 06103."

Please contact Blumenthal at 860-566-3579. His fax is 860-566-1704. He can also be reached on the Internet (ag@csunet.ctstateu.edu). Please urge him to act on the Vermont information! NOW!!! It is time to put pressure on Connecticut's Governor John G. Roland by calling 860-566-4840 and faxing 524-7396. Governor Roland is a Republican and will appoint a conservative AG when Blumenthal goes to DOJ. Encourage the governor to contact Vermont's Attorney General for information on the Wiegand case. He could release Linda today. With enough public concern he will. If Jon and Ben remain vulnerable to Wilkinson, and Kiefer is able to manipulate the judges to continue the persecution of Linda, I must conclude that the law has failed and tribulation is upon us. I pray you will find a way to help us as you can. I believe Linda may have found an effective attorney in New Orleans (DuCoty). DuCoty's telephone number is 504-581-5152. He will have to be paid. Lemond may prove to be a God-send. John Schoenhorn knows the case from the beginning. Jim and I will continue with Tony and Paul Spinella. WE CAN MAKE NEW LAW...WE CAN WIN AGAINST ALL ODDS...WE NEED YOUR HELP AND PRAYERS. Please call Pat Robertson at 757-579-7000 and solicit the assistance of his American Center for Law & Justice. The number for Right Way Law is 800-699-0818. Help us kiss these frogs and see if one turns out to be a prince!

It was patently illegal for Kiefer and Judge Levine to send Linda to the state women's prison. A civil rights action can be successfully prosecuted. Lemond stands a good chance of actually making new law with his federal effort. The Louisiana man has a plan that has won him 20 cases similar to Linda's. Our first objective is to get Linda free so she can testify. Second, we must strive and pray every day for the safety of Ben and Jon. Third, we must keep the initiative and stay on the attack. Dollars are like bullets in this legal war. It is possible that besides Kiefer and Wilkinson, a number of corrupt judges may fall before this case has run its course.

You may make credit card donations to Linda with a free call to 888-208-0638. Please send non-credit card donations to: Bo Gritz, Box 308, Kamiah, Idaho 83536. We all sincerely appreciate the help you have so generously given us thus far. Linda has placed many documents of proof on the Internet at www.bogritz.com. An Alabama woman will send you "SAVE JON & BEN -- CALL 888-208-0638 bumper stickers for free if you send a self-addressed envelope and the number of stickers you will use to "Janice, 104 Windsor Way, Pelham, Alabama 35124." Two high dollar rifles are also being offered. For information call Vicci at 208-935-1325. Call John Bailey, Connecticut States Attorney at 860-258-5800, and fax 258-5858. Urge him to act on Linda's behalf to save Jon and Ben. Call Judge George Levine at 860-548-2850 and fax 548-2760 to register your disgust at his cruel and unusual punishment, refusal to secure the boys, and blind cooperation with Kiefer. Call Jerry Brown's National Family Research Center at 800-225-408/800-695-9191. Try Child Problems 800-913-3434. Mike Brown is supposed to be a genius at handling tough cases with corrupt judges. Call him at 804-420-0855.

VICTORY -- TURNING HOLY ORDINANCES INTO SPIRITUAL ORDNANCE

In the December newsletter, I recommended some means of fortifying our families as Saint Paul's letter to the Ephesians, Chapter 6:12 becomes an increasing reality for us. There are some basics that will strengthen every life. This past month it was my privilege to officiate in a marriage and several baptisms. Baptism FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS INTO THE BODY OF JESUS CHRIST opens the door to our Father in Heaven and ultimate Exaltation. Please Read the words of Christ recorded by St. Mark Chapter 16:14-18. Through the Sacrament of Baptism, you can receive the "Gift" of the Holy Ghost!

The Holy Ghost forms the only true church. The Spirit abides in the body of those believers who form the church and they become a Holy Temple unto God. The Holy Spirit can heal when the injured and infirmed are anointed with consecrated oil and blessed by church elders. The Spirit can change a person in the twinkling of an eye from a self-destructive loser to a radiant being of good health and nature. The Holy Ghost is the great truth detector. It may help to understand this "Baptism of Fire" by thinking of this great Gift as the sun, always there, but unseen when your world is backward, or storm clouds get between you and its clear warming nature. Baptism offers you clear skies. God can certainly bestow His Grace upon anyone, but receiving all the Blessings in store for you requires compliance with God's Laws. The Scriptures are clear: You cannot enter the kingdom of Heaven without the right stuff!

Words cannot tell the joy of being able to introduce James, Vicci, and Jim into God's Family through Baptism, taking on the name of the Messiah, being buried in the water and brought forth new in the Spirit. All of us felt the presence of the Holy Spirit as they received the gift of the Holy Ghost. The Clearwater River and Lolo Creek are a bit chilly this time of year for full immersion. Until the Spring thaw, the Fuller Family is offering their hot tub as a baptismal font. A dad and son have chosen to wait for Spring, but others are invited to come out of the cold and feel the Savior's warmth. This Month on the 23rd, a Spike couple will join together in Holy Matrimony on the western slopes of Sunrise Mountain in Las Vegas, Nevada. Our heartfelt congratulations go out to all those whose eyes have opened to the Light.

Janet, my Daughter-in-law, suffered the loss of her dear mother just days before Christmas. Janet was blessed to be there to offer aid not only to her stricken mom, but to the family as they came to bid farewell. To all people who might read this part of the newsletter, please consider the promise recorded in I Corinthians, Chapter 15: 51-53: "Behold I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. THINK ABOUT THE JOY OF THAT MOMENT! WHAT A SHOUT!!! All of the Saints from the time of Adam coming forward with God in Celestial form, and we who are still alive being CHANGED into Celestial bodies to join with them, the faithful of our family who have died and are now made new through Christ! Hallelujah, HALLELUJAH, HALLELUJAH!!! THANK YOU FATHER FOR THE GOSPEL AND YOUR ETERNAL PLAN FOR THY CHILDREN!

LIFE'S A BEACH, THEN YOU DIVE! -- SPIKE SCUBA.

Don't miss what I guarantee represents the doorway to one of the greatest adventures of your life! Some Spikers thought better of Spike Airborne, even though we awarded the world's sexiest jump wings to all who attended. I can understand being somewhat faint hearted about falling through the air like bird-droppings. If heights are a concern, Spike Scuba is just what you've been waiting for! The water is so much more buoyant than the air. Everything moves so slow and easy. Even the most horizontally challenged become like nymphs in the water. As with every Spike, this special Scuba course is designed for everyone regardless of experience. The new divers will learn a lot. The 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea survivors will be honed to a cutting edge on new technology and techniques. Melody, my daughter, is an accomplished NAUI Instructor. Dave, one of your Spike Jumpmasters, can certify you under the Professional Association of Diving Instructors. Scott and I are rated military divers. Others you will learn from are holders of world diving records. It doesn't get any better than this!

You can be PADI International Openwater Certified by attending the first phase. If you are a diver, but haven't breathed underwater for awhile, you should attend Phase One as a refresher. If you have never experienced being underwater with a Self-Contained-Underwater-Breathing-Apparatus, you need to attend Phase One as an introduction, even if you care not to become a dashing card-carrying, death-defying underwater breathing hero. For the few of you Divemaster James Bond-types, who just surfaced from combing the Titanic for souvenirs, you can show up just for Phase Two.

Vernell, you will be glad to know that all of the special (Phase Two) dives are strictly voluntary. Everyone who attends both phases will be awarded a SPIKE Underwater Operations Dive Badge. You will be exposed to more dive specialties than most military frogmen will experience in a career. For you mucho-macho militia-types, North Carolina's Spike Airborne "Rosie" has already signed up!

Melody and Dave made a pre-Christmas on-site inspection of our Florida dive location. If you will keep this part of the Newsletter, and follow the instructions carefully, you will have no problems with any of your surface requirements. First send in your $50 deposit to secure a slot and purchase your Spike Dive Manual. Let me know at that time what phases you want to attend. Second, check with your physician to see if there is any reason why you shouldn't take a week vacation in Florida -- underwater. Third, arrange your transportation and lodging. Use the CFA Newsletters to help you. Begin looking at books about diving. Don't watch John Wayne and Wake of the Red Witch. Tune in to dive programs on the cable TV Travel Channel -- tune out the Lloyd Bridges re-runs. Try submerging yourself in the bathtub. If diving appeals to you, go to a good sports store and purchase a fitted mask suitable for SCUBA (your nose should be covered by the mask with a facility for holding it (nose) between thumb and forefinger for the purpose of equalizing pressure as you descend. You might even consider a pair of flippers (buy these at a dive shop, places marked by red flags with a white diagonal).

We'll furnish all the equipment, but you might want to impress your travelmates until awarded one of only 200 individually numbered SPIKE SCUBA BADGES ever to be made. Like the Parachute Wings, our Scuba badges will be of silver and gold metal with red and blue enamel insets showing you atop the most dreaded denizen of the deep, or if you would rather, I'll make it in the likeness of the Special Forces Underwater Combat Badge. A silver speargun, arrow, and dive knife go behind a golden underwater helmet. I'd like your recommendation this month. Call Vicci at 208-935-1325 with your ideas.

"Forty Fathoms Grotto" that's where we're all headed. Here is how you get there! The Dive Site is 15 miles northwest of Ocala on Northwest 115th Avenue. From Orlando International Airport -- follow airport signs to the Florida Turnpike. Get on the pike (you're going to need $4.25 to get through all four of the booths) and stay on until you get to I-75. Go North on I-75 to Ocala (about 85 miles from the Orlando Airport). Exit north of Ocala on Exit #71 which is SR-326. Turn left (head west) on State Route 326 and go seven miles (you will pass two sets of flashing yellow lights). At the intersection of SR-326 and Northwest 115th Avenue, turn right on Northwest 115 Avenue. You will recognize the intersection by a red and white Dive Flag. Go 1/2-mile and park on the right side of the road at the driveway with the dive flag. Sign up at the protected area. Call 904-368-7974 if you get lost. Exits for Ocala are #68-70 for numerous restaurants and motels.

The Gainesville Airport has two airlines, US Air and Delta and is 35 miles closer to the Dive Site. From Gainesville take I-75 South to Exit 71 and turn right on SR-326 -- then proceed as already described. For those of you flying your own birds, you can roost at the Ocala Municipal Airport. Each edition of the Newsletter will have added instructions. Use the December edition for names and numbers of motels closest to the Dive Site. Next month we will include local shuttle services from and to each of the major airports.

The "Grotto" swim site measures 220 feet across with a depth of 240 feet. The lime stone walls are lined with 50,000,000 year old fossils. Beneath the surface are four submerged steel grate platforms, a motorcycle, 12 cars, airplane, boats, two mini-submarines, and many caverns. The visibility runs about 100-feet in April (a good month) with water temp of 70 degrees. This is a special facility used by the Professional Scuba Association for deep water training. Hal Watts is the owner. Hal holds the world record for the deepest compressed air dive. Hal has trained six other current record holders including his daughter, Scarlet (Women's deepest compressed air dive). We will have special classes by these world class experts on re-breathers, use of mixed gases, deep dive chemistry and physics, underwater photography, navigation, cave, night, etc. YOU WILL NEVER HAVE SUCH A GRAND OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN SO MUCH FROM SO MANY TRUE EXPERTS IN THIS FASCINATING FIELD OF UNDERWATER OPERATIONS FOR SO LITTLE -- ONLY AVAILABLE THROUGH SPIKE SCUBA!

As you can see THIS IS A MAJOR EFFORT not even Special Forces and SEALs get such extensive and professional instruction. YOU MUST BE A SPIKER TO ATTEND SPIKE SCUBA! Call 208-935-1325 and ask Vicci how to qualify, if you are not already a Spiker. This course is going to be totally awesome. I want every one who attends to take away as much knowledge and experience as possible. To assure maximum exposure to these state of the art instructors, I am going to limit attendance to 150 persons. Those of you who seized upon my special PRE-Christmas offer did yourself a super favor. Our course now offers much more than previously planned, but my cost have doubled! I'm going to keep the price to you the same, but I can no longer allow the deep discounts for family and friends. As of 19 January all registrants will be charged $400. I am going down early for some special instruction. My cost is $1,000 for a three-day qualification course. THE INSTRUCTION YOU WILL RECEIVE IS NOT AVAILABLE EXCEPT THROUGH SPIKE. IF YOU COULD BUY THE SAME TRAINING IT WOULD BE MANY TIMES THE TUITION OF THIS ONCE IN A LIFETIME -- NEVER TO BE REPEATED SPIKE SCUBA ADVENTURE! CALL VICCI AND GET YOUR RESERVATION CONFIRMED TODAY!

Don't Worry! Trust Me. EVERY SINGLE BIT OF YOUR UW TRAINING, WHILE A TOTAL-ADVENTURE, WILL BE ABSOLUTELY SAFE. I PUSH THE ENVELOPE TO THE MAX -- THIS IS WHAT I DO BEST, BUT THE OVER-RIDING RULE IS: EVERY SPIKE IS DESIGNED TO LENGTHEN -- NEVER SHORTEN YOUR LIFE.

ALMOST HEAVEN

Please don't be like the cartoon characters who played and delayed until the wolf was at their door. The last Constitutional Covenant Community is now under development, but the acreages are going fast. Dustin Gillespie reported selling six lots in December with numerous appointments to show the land during the Christmas holiday. Once the current offerings are decided, the only way to secure a homesite will be from private parties willing to share the land. We are currently underselling all Realtors and developers. Three buyers that I know of have their lots up for sale -- at many times the price they paid. Almost Heaven Too has considerable timber that can be used to construct a home, sold to eager logging companies, or left as is for your enjoyment and as habitat for the abundant wildlife. Jerry Gillespie, Claudia and I decided not to take the lumber profits in favor of those who will build their homes there. I love the tall pines. We have even left a real giant right in the center of the ruway at Flying Elk on the inland end. The tree will make a good reference for pilots to plan their approaches.

We still have the most beautiful lot at Shenandoah available. Jerry and I had reserved it for our children, but I've gone into debt getting settled at Almost Heaven without selling our Nevada airport-house. The sale of the lot will help pay the lender until the Sandy Valley home is sold. We also have RV-Mobilehome full-service lots that are ready for your hook-up. Call Jerry and Dustin at 208-935-2918 for details and the best time for you to inspect the land. A family who recently bought land took a photo of our view. They sent a huge enlargement that is so spectacular, I wish it could somehow be printed in 3-D and sent to you as a postcard. Thanks to Mike, a gentleman at Deer Lodge, Montana, we now have a suitable flag flying from our 40-foot pole. If you need larger flags, call him at 305-949-6007. Night lights make Old Glory visible for miles around.

Keep an eye on where America is headed. Look who we have for a President! Consider it a "Sign of the Times" that "Beavis & Butthead" is the top primetime network series program (announced on 22 December). "Beavis & Butthead Do America" -- the movie -- set a record by topping all December releases in America -- ever. Study the Scriptures. Note that the time of Adam and Eve was 4000 B.C. Almost 2,000 years have past since the time of Christ. God foreordained the temporal existence of His children on this earth as 6,000 years. Determine if these are the end times. Compare the world situation with what God's true prophets have proclaimed must happen. Measure time by these events. Ask God for discernment. Prepare yourself to receive His urgings. Take appropriate steps to secure your family's future. Those who are prepared have no need of fear. I told you long ago that Clinton would be re-elected. Our American rights are being eroded every day through un-Constitutional laws. Insure that you have secure place before you are forced to either capitulate, compromise your beliefs, or abandon your home.

Almost Heaven is designed to provide you with assurance that you may continue to live as an American. As the Roman Xth Legion destroyed the Temple of Israel for the second time, a group of isolated "extremists" known as Essenes moved to occupy a mountain stronghold known as Masada. There they refused all demands to surrender. It took the elite soldiers of Rome a long time to scale the mountain heights, bridge the gaps, and breach the walls. When the conquerors finally entered, they found all the faithful dead except a woman and several small children hiding in the grain bins. That was 1,936 years ago. There is a time yet to come when global forces will persecute the faithful, only this time the stronghold will not be broken before the coming of the Lord.

We at Almost Heaven do not seek trouble, but we do oppose tyranny and will fight for our traditional rights as Americans. There are no restrictions relating to color, creed, or other variables to whom is welcomed at Almost Heaven. The only commitment is that you agree to stand in the defense of every other resident's Constitutional rights.

I recommended that the several inner-locked communities organize a council to oversee facility development and safety, but residents chose not to do this at this time. Each month I will give examples of incidents as they occur to illustrate how the community is intended to function. This past month a team of repossessioners came up the mountain to reclaim a vehicle. The land owner did not question or impede the property removal. I would have stopped the interlopers and required them to go through the sheriff. If the paperwork was correct and they were right in their demand, the vehicle would have been driven down to Kamiah and released upon receipt. No agent or entity should assume a right to intrude on private property within the covenant community for enforcement purposes without an invitation or other proper authorization. Those who are unfamiliar with our policy should be invited to leave until arrangements are coordinated with the owners. If a family allows such an infringement without challenge, it may ensconce a precedent encouraging others to follow suit. My intention was to elect Peace Officers within the Safety unit to cooperate with law enforcement in handling such situations. In the absence of organization, I urge all residents on Almost Heaven Properties to use the telephone and Citizens Band radio to advise neighbors of any such incident.

The repossession involved one of the few families who have chosen to live apart from others in the community. There is no law forcing anyone to live up to their word concerning mutual protection, but the consequence will affect us all. It is my solemn promise to protect with my life the Constitutional rights every legitimate home owner within our covenant community. I will do this peacefully if at all possible, but my blood will be upon the ground before any family suffers damage by belligerent authority. You are free to reject my help, and I am not depending on anyone to come to my aid, but I will be there if humanly possible to stand between you and harm's way. I am deeply grateful for all those who came to my home in support of my family when Jim and I were arrested in Connecticut. I Thank Each One of You!

When we moved from Nevada to Idaho in July, I spoke with a small group who challenged my plan for the future. They were antsy and thought we should be doing more. Please accept the fact that I have planned for every moment until the Day of the Lord! CALL JERRY OR DUSTIN AT 208-935-2918 FOR INFORMATION ON ALMOST HEAVEN. Don't forget the current raffle -- only $50 per entry. I hope you will consider joining us. I don't want anything bad happening to you or yours. as time goes on.

RESPLENDENT BANNER

Vida, a Spiker neighbor, recently did me a great favor by sewing a white border around my remnant flag and enlarging the center star. My new Idaho office is ready and will feature a Civil War motif. Center stage is the "Two Little Boys" statue showing a Rebel Color Sergeant reaching down from his horse to help his wounded childhood friend, now a Yank, to mount. My Great-Grand Father's Civil War pistol is under glass along with other lifelong treasures. Claudia planned the elevated built-in book shelves to allow for a portrait of "Crowned with Glory," "Shenandoah Sunrise," (in honor of Almost Heaven's Shenandoah), and "Act of Compassion," a Civil War print commissioned by the Army War College class of 1996. The scene is an active battle situation wherein a Southern soldier is offering water to the dying men in blue while the defending Rebs await yet another assault. There is a picture of the Grey Ghost, John Singleton Mosby, and I'm looking for likenesses of the Swampfox, Francis Marion, and the original Ranger, Robert Rogers. Each of these guerrilla fighters triumphed over the many with a few.

As a small boy, I was privileged to have my Great Grand Father, Ethma Cauthen, live with us. Before withdrawing to better memories of his cherished bride and beloved South, "Dad" told me the story of His unit's banner. It was hand-sewn of cotton with a blue Cross of Saint Andrew separating the red field into four equals. 12 white stars decorated the cross each representing a Tribe of Israel coming together to a larger Star (the Messiah) in the center. Dad said that originally the flag had been planned with four emblems decorating the center of each divided field. The symbols were that of a Man, Eagle, Lion, and Ox, which had been those marking Israel's divisions, but inclusion of the four-figures was too difficult.

Dad told with strength and fury in his normally subdued voice how our great Union was ripped asunder by the same forces that tested us at Concord and Fort McHenry. Somehow, he said, they both hated and feared freedom -- they couldn't stand for God's people to populate and prosper in a "Heavenly Kingdom Come to Earth." Dad said the north became industrialized because of its resources, weather and soil; whereas the south accepted a labor intensive agrarian manufacturing role for the same reasons. It wasn't Americans, but Europeans who introduced and promoted slavery. The Washington, D.C. Congress favored the north in its rules and taxation and sought to erase the sovereignty of each State and its right to agency even as the free citizen. The war nearly ripped America apart and delivered us into the hands of European bankers who financed both sides.

Jefferson Davis wept upon learning that President Lincoln had been murdered. Lincoln had wanted to re-knit the Union. After Lincoln's death, his policy of benevolence was reversed and 10 years of martial law followed. The South was swamped with Carpetbaggers and injustice. Ethma Cauthen was one of the first members of the KKK. Do you see any similarity in D.C. decisions 136 years ago and today as they pertain to States Rights? The voters of California decided to deny welfare to illegal aliens, and minority preference, only to have Washington judges force excessive and prejudicial taxes down their throats. In another arena, federal courts rule that D.C. agencies can continue to grab State land and resources.

The first flag of the South was the Bonny Blue with a single center White Star. Then came a series of flags with seven white stars on a blue field representing the first seven Confederate States, with two horizontal red stripes separated with a white stripe. At a distance through battlefield conditions the flag was difficult to distinguish from that of the Union. A white piece was attached to the end, but looked like a flag of surrender when the wind was calm. The Mississippi Volunteer Infantry then presented a flag showing 12 stars in a vertical Christian Cross (St. George) on the same blue field with red and white stripes.

Finally, it was my namesake, General Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard, (he started the Civil War by ordering the bombardment of Fort Sumter), who designed the "Stars & Bars Battle Flag." Beauregard was an interesting person. He graduated 2nd in his class at West Point, served with distinction in the Mexican War, yet resigned his Union commission and enlisted in the CSA as an Infantry private. It didn't take long for the "brass" in Richmond to promote him to Brigadier. He became the hero of Sumter and Bull Run.

Today, there are many who would destroy the physical presence and even the memory of this Standard. I read where our Stars & Stripes is now referred to by the politically correct as a "flag of discrimination." It causes me to wonder if we will someday lose our "Old Glory" in favor of a world pennant? That day will come, soon to be followed by the Day of the Lord, sound of the Trump, and the coming forth of all the Saints since the beginning who have died in Christ. On that Great Day, my Great Grand Father will be pleased to find "Resplendent Banner" over Almost Heaven. Come by and look in on me while visiting Almost Heaven. Unlike Leslie Stahl's version, I'll tell you how Almost Heaven was named.

RANGER ORDERS STILL STAND

Robert Rogers was commissioned in the militia of New Hampshire in 1755, and went on to become the army's foremost scout during the French Indian War (1756-63). Rogers gained fame for leading small effective frontier battle units known as "Rangers." Rogers was a better guerrilla fighter than a merchant, and soon after the war, he ended up in debtors prison. Still a hero to the Crown, Major Rogers applied for and was put in charge of a Michigan post. He had actually led the force that, during the war, had taken Detroit from the French. Now that Canada and the American Midwest was open, England sought a Northwest passage. It was only natural that the buckskin fieldmaster run afoul of his stuffed-shirt superiors. General Thomas Gage unsuccessfully tried Rogers for treason! Angry at the pompous British aristocracy, Rogers offered his services to the American patriots. Unfortunately, his celebrity military status, caused emerging Minutemen to view Rogers with suspicion, and they also arrested him. Caught in the middle, Rogers escaped and formed the Queen's Rangers (1776) and the King's Rangers in 1779.

No question, Rogers fought on the wrong side in our War for Independence, but his Warfight "rules" have served American Rangers well since reactivation by Col. Darby during World War II. Rangers then and now still "Lead the Way." During World War II, Rangers were formed into Battalions and deployed on major decisive missions. During the war in Korea, an Airborne Ranger Company was assigned to combat Infantry Divisions, and mis-used when Generals were afraid to risk their own troops. Since the time of Robert Rogers, senior officers have mis-understood and been opposed to any "elite" field force that didn't show well on the parade ground. When I joined Special Forces in 1957, the policy was to assign one Ranger to each Rifle Company. In theory the spirit and skill of this "lone" Ranger would be contagious and spread throughout the command. The idea was good, but senior non-Ranger commanders wouldn't turn their training time over to junior ranking Rangers.

As a Ranger lieutenant assigned to the 2d (Indianhead) Infantry Division, my Battle Group Commander was the exception. Colonel Conner gave me a job normally reserved for captains. I turned A Company, 87th Infantry, into a unit where soldiers didn't wear the coveted Gold and Black "RANGER" Tab, but acted as if they did. Our company was constantly used as "aggressor" against much larger units. Each time we surprised the General Staff by doing what was thought impossible to accomplish every assigned task. In Vietnam, I formed and commanded the first Mobile Guerrilla Task Force (MGTF-957), where the "unheard of" became routine. We recovered a U-2 Spy Plane captured by the communists, and raided 15 enemy Battalion and Regimental bases with 53 additional engagements during one continuous 30-day operation in an area denied to friendly conventional forces -- with only a single Forceman killed. We went on to capture enemy generals, destroy key installations, capture prisoners, interdict major routes of communication, locate targets for B-52 bomber strikes, and accomplish whatever was required by the High Command. Throughout, we proved that both American and indigenous forces could be turned into Rangers through proper training and leadership.

God be praised, the U.S. Army has gone back to Ranger Battalions. Today there is a Ranger Regiment with three battalions. I was elated when in 1968 the U.S. Commander in Vietnam, General Fred Weyant, mentioned to me that General York, Commander, Fort Benning, Georgia, could supply two battalions of 750 American Rangers each. My euphoria turned to despair when the General Staff turned the offer down. Throughout my career as a special operations commander, I have lived by, and taught my soldiers the Standing Orders of the first Rangers. Reproduced below are the exact words used by Major Robert Rogers to admonish his own frontier force. With little modification, they are as good today as they were then!

ROGERS RANGERS -- STANDING ORDERS

1. Don't forget nothing.
2. Have your musket clean as a whistle, hatchet scoured, 60 rounds of powder and ball, and be ready to move at a moments warning.
3. When you're on the march act the way you would if you was sneaking up on a deer, see the enemy first.
4. Tell the truth about what you see and what you do.

There is an army depending on us for correct information. You can lie all you please when you tell other folks about the Rangers. But don't ever lie to an officer or Ranger.

5. Don't never take a chance you don't have to.
6. When we're on the march, we march single file, far enough apart so one shot can't go through two men.
7. If we strike swamps, or soft ground we spread out abreast so it's hard to track us.
8. When we march, we keep moving till dark, so as to give the enemy the least possible chance at us.
9. When we camp, half the party stays awake while the other half sleeps.
10. If we take prisoners, we keep 'em separate till we have had time to examine them, so they can't cook up a story between them.
11. Don't ever march home the same way. Take a different route so you won't be ambushed.
12. No matter whether we travel in big parties or little ones, each party has to keep a scout 20 yards ahead, 20 yards on each flank, and 20 yards in the rear, so the main body can't be surprised and wiped out.
13. Every night you'll be told where to meet if surrounded by a surprise force.
14. Don't sit down to eat without posting sentries.
15. Don't sleep beyond dawn.
16. Don't cross a river by a regular ford.
17. If somebody's trailing you, make a circle, come back onto your own tracks, and ambush the folks that aim to ambush you.
18. Don't stand up when the enemy's coming against you. Kneel down, lie down, hide behind a tree.
19. Let the enemy come till he's close enough to touch. Then let him have it and jump out and finish him off with your hatchet.

Now that you have been exposed to the Ranger Standing Orders, maybe excerpts from the "Ranger Creed" will be of interest:

I volunteered as a Ranger, fully aware of the hazards. I will always uphold the honor and spirit of the Rangers. I accept the fact that as a Ranger my country expects me to move further, faster, and fight harder than any other warrior. Never shall I fail my comrades. Gallantly will I set the example for others to follow. I engage the enemies of my country and defeat them. I will never surrender. I will fight on to the Ranger objective and complete the mission, though I be the lone survivor.

What Is The CENTER FOR ACTION???

Center For Action (CFA) was started by Col. James "Bo" Gritz and his wife Claudia in 1989. Bo had spent over 30 years of his life serving in the U.S. Army. He is America's most decorated Green Beret Commander in the Vietnam War. In General William Westmoreland's best seller, "A Soldier's Report" Gen. Westmoreland dedicated a chapter to Bo and called it "THE American Soldier." Bo received 62 citations of valor.

After Vietnam Bo served as Commander of Special Forces in Latin America, Chief of Staff in the Pentagon, Congressional Officer for the Army and more. He holds three Master Degrees including Law Enforcement, Communications and Journalism.

Bo has led numerous POW/MIA rescue operations. It was during one of these that Bo was given the names of high government officials smuggling drugs by the drug Lord Khun Sa of Burma.

It was at this time in 1989 that Bo organized the Center For Action.

In 1991 Bo ran for President and asked Jerry Gillespie to join him as National Campaign Coordinator and currently serves as business partner and associate.

Bo was successful in 1992 of rescuing Randy Weaver and his girls from murder by the U.S. government. Bo testified before the U.S. Senate regarding Ruby Ridge and negotiated with the Freemen in Jordan, Montana.

In 1993 Center For Action started SPIKE (Specially Prepared Individuals for Key Events) Delta Force training and traveled through out the nation teaching special preparedness courses. After 3 and 1/2 years of training, thousands of students have attended the training in person or purchased the videos.
